

HxGN AgrOn OPERATIONAL MANAGEMENT

Information management system through reports and numerical and geographical consolidation of agricultural and forestry operations. Product that allows the management of information of operations through advanced and automated processing, presenting customised data.

Understand how AgrOn Operational Management works:

Find out more about HxGN AgrOn Operational Management:

- Allows the generation of reports in a configurable and modular way, according to the need of each customer
- Presents the data in the form of reports with thematic maps, graphs and exportable tables
- Enables integration with ERP and BI tools
- Facilitates modification and creation of new reports
- Filters tailored to each Report Model
- Applicable to any type of crop

RESULTS AND BENEFITS

- Enables corrective action of uncalibrated machines
- Can be used to assist in checking the area and quality of work performed by third parties or by the team itself
- Generates indicators on input use in relation to the recommendation
- Identifying anomalies in the operation
- Enables planning, inventory reduction and payment of resources as inputs and third parties
- Provides configurable reports and consolidations